

2019 Donna Derden Scholarship Application

Members of the Apartment Association of Greater Dallas are eligible to apply for scholarships from the AAGD Education Foundation for NAAEI Credential programs. Competition for these scholarships is based on financial need and a commitment to the apartment industry.

The Donna Derden Scholarship will pay the partial or full amount of the total cost of a Credential program (NALP, CAM, CAPS, CAMT, CAS). All applications will be reviewed by a selection committee to determine award recipients. A representative from the AAGD Education Department will notify award recipients by January 5th. Scholarship recipients will be formally announced at the AAGD Education Conference.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Applicants must currently be employed by an AAGD member in good standing
2. Applicants are not eligible if retaking a Credential program
3. Applicants are ineligible if their company offers 100% Credential reimbursement
4. Applicants who are eligible for a company reimbursement less than 100% are eligible to have the amount or percentage not reimbursed by their company
5. Applicants who are awarded partial scholarships must pay the remaining tuition by the regular payment deadline of the credential they register for
6. Award recipients must complete an NAAEI Credential program offered exclusively at AAGD within one year of the award presentation
7. Applicants must submit completed application with a resume and a letter of recommendation from an immediate supervisor to desquer@aagdallas.com by the deadline
